2. Compliance of SME Criteria

When granting aid to SMEs, an SME is defined as being a company with less than 250 employees and with an annual turnover not exceeding DKK 375 million and/or an annual balance sheet total not exceeding DKK 320 million in the last financial year. If the applicant is owned by a parent company / companies by more than 49% and / or has a subsidiary / subsidiaries with an ownership interest of more than 49%, the number of employees and revenue for the whole group must be included. This should also be included if the parent company is owned by another parent company with more than 49% etc. This is regardless of whether the parent companies and / or subsidiaries are Danish or Foreign.

3. Compliance with the EU'S de minimis Rules for Government Aid

Companies must not receive "de minimis" support that exceeds the EUR 300,000 limit over the past 3 years. If the company is legally part of a group structure (domestic as well as foreign) which together is liable for de minimis subsidy, the full amount for the entire group should be disclosed. See the State Aid Handbook pages 85-86 (in Danish) for a definition of how much of the group is covered. Note: previous grants from The Trade Council, as well as other public aid packages are covered by the de minimis rules and must be mentioned.

Aid in the form of grants is given in accordance with EU rules on "de minimis" aid, cf. Commission Regulation \(EU\) No 1407/2013 of 18th December 2013.
