The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark (MFA) contributes to the International Planned Parenthood Federation (IPPF) with DKK 50 million in core funding annually from 2018-2021. The IPPF secretariat allocates the funding to its member associations including the IPPF Arab World Regional Office in Tunisia.

Following whistleblower complaints in 2021, IPPF initiated a forensic review of the IPPF Arab World Regional Office (AWRO) covering the period 2015-2019. In February 2024, the MFA was notified that the review was concluded. While no fraud was detected, the review identified 74 ineligible transactions totalling DKK 675,744. The Danish share is app. DKK 83,105.

IPPF have reimbursed the Danish MFA for its share of the ineligible transactions. Since 2023, IPPF has moved to a shared service unit model for the entire IPPF Secretariat with a more rigorous financial management that includes stronger documentation and review processes.

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs thus regards the case as closed without loss of Danish funds.
